INDIANS DAZZLE HARVARD'S ELEVEN

Famous Carlisle Team
Gives Brilliant and Successful Exhibition.

NEARLY DOUBLE HARVARD SCORE

Speed of Redmen Proves Revelation—Princeton Defeats Amherst and Yale Wins by Old-Fashioned Play—Swarthmore Defeats Middies.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., November 9.—The memory of previous defeats was forgotten to-day in the victory of the Carlisle Indians over Harvard by a score of 22 to 15.

For versatility of play the Indian team has not been equaled on Soldiers' Field since the new rules went into effect. Forward passes, delayed kicks and cross passes followed each other in rapid succession, until the Harvard players became bewildered and seemed utterly unable to stop the march of the Indians toward their goal. The visitors scored twice in the first half and twice in the second, and all the four times on brilliant rushing. The Harvard points were made on two touchdowns and a goal from placement by Captain Parker.

Each of the touchdowns was made on fumbles by the Indians directly in front of their goal line, so that it was comparatively easy for the Crimson players to push the ball over for a score. Little Mount Pleasant, the Indian quarterback, kicked three out of four attempts. In the most brilliant of his dash of seventy-five yards through the end of the Harvard eleven for a touchdown shortly after the beginning of the second half. The play was one of the most sensational seen on Soldiers' Field for many years.

WAKE FOREST BASKET-BALL

Carolina College Ready to Meet All Comers in This Sport.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., November 9.—The Wake Forest basketball team plays Trinity next Friday in Durham, the second game of the season. It is said that Trinity has a heavy and fast team this year, and the students of Wake Forest are confidently expecting victory. They will become somewhat jarred, however, when they tackle Wake Forest, for notwithstanding the fact that the team has lost this year three of its star players, the center, Beverly, guard, and Turner, forward—Wake Forest is going to put out the fastest team that ever left the campus. The boys have been practicing hard for the past six weeks, and under the direction of Mr. Crozier have gotten the game down to a nicety.

The team last year won every game that it played, and through the Atlanta Journal challenged any college in the South to meet it.

The students here are as confident of victory as are the boys at Trinity, saying that if their friends do not improve greatly on their playing of last year Wake Forest will have a "lead pipe cinch."

Mr. Crozier wishes to renew his challenge of last year, and says that he would like to make arrangements for games to be played with any Virginia, North or South Carolina college at any time.

HOWITZERS WIN.

St. Andrew's Eleven Beaten 12 to 0 in an Interesting Game.

Yesterday afternoon at Christ Church athletic field the Richmond Howitzer football eleven defeated the St. Andrew's School team 12 to 0, making two touchdowns and one safety. There being no goal-posts, goal was not kicked. A good attendance witnessed an interesting and fast game.

Next Saturday at 4 P. M. the Howitzers will play Fulton on Christ Church athletic field. Yesterday's line-up:

BETHEL ACADEMY WINS.

Randolph-Macon Academy Loses by Small Score.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WARRINGTON, VA., November 9.—Bethel Military Academy defeated Randolph-Macon Academy of Front Royal, here to-day by a score of 5 to 0 in a beautifully-played game. The game was Bethel's from the start, and Ramsey, who played fullback, was the star for the home team.

WASHINGTON AND LEE TEAM WHICH BEAT VIRGINIA

BLACKSBURG BOYS DEFEAT V. M. I. TEAM

Lexingtonians Outplayed by the Heavier Men of the V. P. I. Eleven.

CROWDS WITNESS THE GAME

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROANOKE, VA., November 9.—The largest crowd ever assembled on the football grounds in this city saw V. M. I. go down in defeat before V. P. I. this afternoon, by the score of 22 to 0. The crowd was estimated at between 2,500 and 3,000. The V. P. I. boys came on the ground first, headed by their band, and marched around the grounds before taking their places in the grandstand. V. M. I. was first on the field at 2:40. V. P. I. marched on the field at 2:50, headed by their band. V. P. I. averaged 176 pounds; V. M. I. averaged 156.

V. M. I. put up a game fight in the first half, but, seeing themselves outclassed, gave weight the odds. At 3 P. M. the game was started. V. M. I. kicking off to V. P. I., defended the west goal. The ball was exchanged from one to another till V. P. I. finally landed on V. M. I.'s thirty-yard line, where a goal from field was tried, but failed.

After twenty-three minutes of actual play V. P. I. succeeded in kicking a goal from the field, and before the half was over Diffendal recovered the ball, making a touchdown. First half ended 10 to 0.

SECOND HALF.

The second half was rather a walk-over for V. P. I., they scoring two touchdowns and kicking both goals. The main reason for V. M. I.'s defeat was the way in which the ends of V. P. I. got down the field on Hodgson's kicks. V. P. I. also outplayed V. M. I., but would resort to kicks at close quarters, thereby always punting the ball in V. M. I.'s territory. On the other hand, V. M. I. held for downs on three different occasions, while no ball was in six inches of their goal. McLane got his punts off nicely throughout the game, but the ends could not get down the field in time to save the V. P. I. men from carrying the ball back twenty to forty yards on every kick.

Poague and Ward had the misfortune to break their collarbones in the last half. The stars of the game were Diffendal, captain, and Hodgson, fullback for V. P. I., and Massie and Doyle, of the V. M. I.

WASHINGTON AND LEE DEFEAT UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA ELEVEN

CAROLINA WINS IN VERY FAST GAME

Defeats Georgetown on Home Field by the Score of 12 to 5.

WASHINGTON, November 9.—North Carolina, 12; Georgetown, 5. That tells the story of Georgetown's defeat by the husky band from the University of North Carolina on Georgetown Field this afternoon. The Blue and Gray eleven was outwheeled, but it cannot be said that they were outplayed. Perhaps it was not on the defensive, but on the offensive, that the light school eleven was a surprise, even to the students themselves. Twice after making a touchdown, the locals were within hailing distance of the enemy's goal, but on both occasions the bulk of the Tarheel eleven told.

Once, with the ball on North Carolina's one-yard line, it seemed as though nothing could stop the District eleven from scoring, but the bulk of the weight of the Chapel Hill outfit centered in the three middle men, and Thompson made the fatal mistake of trying to go through them. It was disappointing to the Blue and Gray rooters, and heart-breaking to the players themselves, for they had made one grand effort to cross the Tarheels' goal, but on both occasions the bulk of the Tarheel eleven told.

Early in the first half the locals appeared to be able to rack the visitors' defense with more or less success, and the crowd, all but a small portion of which were Georgetown's sympathizers, was in ecstasies. But soon the North Carolina defense strengthened, and before the half was well under way it became wall-like.

It was impossible for fast play. The field was in a soggy condition, just adaptable for such a team as North Carolina presented, and a detriment to a club of Georgetown's make-up.

The line-up and score:

Lexingtonians Scored a Touchdown Just Before Close.

KICKED A GOAL AND WON BATTLE

Byrd Allowed Long Punt to Get Away from Him Almost on Goal Line, and Neff's Kick Was Blocked, Score Following.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., November 9.—On the eve of the most important game on her schedule, the championship contest with Georgetown, Virginia was defeated to-day by Washington and Lee 9 to 5. The Lexingtonians won the game in the last two minutes of play. Byrd, who had been substituted for Honaker at quarterback, allowed a long punt to get away from him, being downed on Virginia's nine-yard line. Captain Neff booted the ball twenty-five yards, and the Lexingtonians, after being twice held, tried an onside kick. Byrd caught the ball, but went down under a heap on Virginia's three-yard line, almost under the cross-bar of the goal. Fearing that the ball would strike the cross-bar Captain Neff ran to the

DAY OF FINE SPORT FOR THE HUNT CLUBS

Members of Middlesex Hunt Club Have Fine Morning Run Near Leesburg.

HAVE THREE-HOUR CHASE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LEESBURG, VA., November 9.—The Middlesex Hunt Club, of South Lincoln, Mass., met their English pack to-day at Dry Mill for a week-end run. A. Henry Higginson led the field; whips, Willie Edwards and Ned Cotesworth. The start was made at the Dry Mill, and the first find was in the Dry Mill woods, the fox leading the hounds across the open, where he was denuded.

The second find was at Utopia, the hounds running for three hours southwest, the fox in sight, and the field following close. The hounds lost the scent for a while, regained it, and then denuded the fox.

Hiding to hounds were Mrs. Davis, of Leesburg; Mr. Eustis, of Oatlands; Mr. Castleman and Corbin Castleman, of Leesburg; Mr. Lynn and Miss Swart, of Leesburg. At the start were Miss White, of Selma; Mr. Chichester, Sr., and Mr. Chichester, Jr., Miss S. Langdon, Mrs. Henderson, of Clarke; Captain Chichester and Mrs. Page, of Ivon; Mr. Littleton and Miss Berkeley, of Leesburg.

TOMAHAWK HUNT HAS WEEKLY RUN

Meet at Montebello, Colonial Home of the Grays, Near Orange.

ORANGE, VA., November 9.—Beneath threatening skies, the weekly drag of the Tomahawk Hunt Club was run at Montebello, the Colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gray, near Orange, Va. Rare indeed is the opportunity presented to ride over such nice hunting country as this estate affords, and though the going should have been heavy on account of recent copious rains, yet so fine is the sod that the footing was all that could be desired, and not a mishap marked the pleasant run. The hounds were thrown in just back of the mansion, and went away at a merry clip, taking a circular course around the farm for a five-mile run, negotiating a number of fences, ditches and small creeks, and rounding up with stuff in and out round a bevy of haystacks.

After the hunt the genial host and his charming wife vied with each other in serving their guests with those things which tickle the palate of the epicure. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Grymes, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Gray, Mrs. C. W. Woolfolk, Miss Allen Gray, Miss Eugenia Grymes, Miss Katherine Newman, Hon. G. S. Shackelford, R. C. Macen, H. O. Lyne, Virginia Shackelford, Dr. Harris, Wal-

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY MEN OUTCLASSED

Richmond College Football Team Plays Rings Around the Visitors.

VISITORS WERE UNABLE TO SCORE

Superb Team Play by Local Collegians and Brilliant Running of Backs and Tackles Netted Six Touchdowns, and Atkins Lands Field Goal.

The football eleven of Richmond College gave the team of Hampden-Sidney a sad surprise yesterday, defeating the Prince Edward men 38 to 0 in a long game of thirty-minute halves, scoring two touchdowns and a drop kick for goal in the first half for a total of fifteen points, and adding four touchdowns, from which three goals were kicked, in the second half. It was a Waterloo for the Revolutionists, but their faithful band of rooters never deserted them at any time, and gave their short, sharp Hampden-Sidney cry at frequent intervals as an encouragement and a consolation.

The game was a fast and cleverly played one on the part of the local collegians, the visitors being outclassed, however, by the Red and Blue team. While several individual men played star games for Hampden-Sidney, the team as a whole was inferior to Richmond College in every essential point, but particularly in the line, through which the Richmond backs and tackles ploughed at will during the second half.

The visitors were greatly weakened by the disqualification of Armistead, the 180-pound fullback of whom great things were expected, and by the injury of Captain Johns a few moments after play began. Johns had his collarbone fractured and had to get out, reluctantly. Despite this handicap, however, it is difficult to see how the visitors could have made much headway against the unyielding line of Red and Blue, nor how they could stop the plunging backs and tackles, who bored holes through the Garnet and Gray line so many human augers. The visitors apparently lacked condition also, time having to be called frequently for a winded or bruised player to recover his wind or nurse his bumps. This fact is also attested by the score of the two halves, Richmond making but two touchdowns in the first half and four in the second, the first score being a field goal dropped by Atkins, of Richmond.

For Richmond, aside from the individual work of the backs and tackles and Atkins' clever punting, the team work of the entire eleven was the feature. Without this the backs could not have gotten through for their long runs.

The whole Richmond team worked like a well-oiled machine, making holes whenever required, and supporting their backs with beautiful interference. In the form they displayed yesterday, Richmond would give Virginia, North Carolina, V. P. I. or V. M. I. a hard fight to win and could have defeated Georgetown easily. It was a triumph of good coaching and conditioning.

Hampden-Sidney Stars.

For Hampden-Sidney Fleming at left end was the bright particular star, getting into all the plays, tackling furiously, breaking up end runs and falling on the ball at every opportunity. Next to him, Bischof, right end, and Foster, quarter, did excellent work. Lewis, who did their punting, was outplayed by Atkins, the left-foot punter of Richmond, whose work was of a high class. Wright at left end for Richmond, was also very successful in manipulating the forward pass and once made a touchdown by a pretty run through a broken field after a pass. Louthan and Lankford, backs; Thraves and Robertson, tackles, and Waite, fullback, circled the Garnet and Gray ends and plunged through the line for repeated gains. Louthan gave way to Rue near the close, but he had played a brilliant ground-gaining game.

The contest was witnessed by about 1,500 people, despite the threatening weather, and an intermittent sprinkle during the closing half, which drove the bleacherites to shelter. Hampden-Sidney had about 75 to 100 followers present, and very much in evidence early in the game. The bulk of the crowd yelled for Richmond, and whenever a player made a good gain, the yell was followed by his name. Colors were not conspicuously abundant. As the game progressed it grew too one-sided for the visitors to muster much enthusiasm, but they were game to
